Uniform Rank Organized.

The organization of Orchard Camp. Uniform Rank, K. O. T. M., No. 17, was Uniform Rank, K. O. T. M., No. 17. was completed ast night at a meeting held in the McMullen block and a constitution and by laws we adopted. It is a lively young care p with a membership of twenty and starts in Maccabee life with bright prospects of becoming a strong organization. The officers elected last night are as follows: Past captain, P. S. Hunt; captain, George Hess, first lieutenant, Elliott Sherman; second lieutenant, P. P. Cary; record keeper, Thomas Price; finance keeper, Curties E. Cowell; first sergeant, Herman Warreil; second serpeant, Thomas Price; bugier, W. J. Carlyte; chaptain, John DeMan. The trustees of the camp are composed of the first five officers. The members will drill every night in the hall from now until the great camp review in September, in order to take part in the great review.

Will Not Go to Minnetonka.

It has been reported that the Grand Rapids Boat and Canoe club would send crews to the meeting of the Mississippi Valley Rowing association at Minnetonka Beach, Monnesota August 4, but Secretary J. W. Halcombe said to a reporter for The Herald last evening that no crews will be sent from this ciub. He said the Mississippi Valley association has slated two of the local teams for the event, but owing to the abort time the club has been organized, it has no crews in training for the meeting, and the event occurring so near at hand, they cannot get ready for it.

Still Hunting for Them.

everal ciues have been followed but have come to naught. Yesterday mornhave come to naught. Yesterday morning a man residing near Ada telephoned that he had seen the men pass his place. Officer Powers drove out and found the men, but they looked no more like Brienson and Forbes than Blinkey Morgan looked like Sam Jones. Deputy Sheriff Brinkman is at work near Grand Haven and Holland. He sent back word yesterday that he believed he was on the right track and would capture the men all right.

Had a Close Call.

While a fire engine from the West side was on its way to the fire yesterday at 2:30, going down Bridge street at a repid gait, it came near having a collision with an electric car at the corner of Canal and Bridge streets. It was by the best engineering possible on the part of the driver of the team that both horses were not killed or disabled. As it was, one of the animals fell down by the sudden pull and turn but was able to reden pull and turn, but was able to regain his feet, apparently uninjured, and proceeded on his way.

Made Him Sew for It.

A little sickly old man called on the Charity society yesterday and wanted to earn 50 cents to get his grip out of hock. He claimed he had walked from Lansing. He said he was a tailor by trade, so Miss Field gave him a needle and thread and a dilapitated suit of clothes and set him to work. He appeared to be a grown workman and second peared to be a good workman, and soon he had transformed the rags into a good serviceable suit. He earned his 10 cepts, and went on his way rejoicing and looking for a job.

For the Temple Dedication.

The local Good Templars are busy making arrangements for their excursion to Hackley park. August 4, to attend to Hackley park. August 4, to attend the dedication of the new temple. An elaborate program has been prepared for the occasion and the Rev. Dr. John L. Jackson of the Fountain street baptist church will deliver an address. A large crowd is expected at the park, as etcursions from Pentwater, St. Joseph, Stanta, Ashley and Owoseo will be taken of that day.

Hungerford Nearly Lost His Hand. Ed Hungerford of No. 78 Fairbanks street, employed in the Herkey & Gay factory, caught his right hand in a sander late yesterday afternoon and sustained a painful and serious injury. The pain of his hand was torn nearly out and us was taken to Dr. Moffat's office for treatment. The surgeon tack seven stitches in the sound, but he thinks the hand can be saved. After the wound had been dressed Hungerford was taken to his home in the ambulance.

Mrs. May of No. 116 Fourth street. who was injured some time ago by a fail due to a defective sidewalk, is still help-less, and is said to be in a destitute condition. She refused the 950 would her by the city as also beautal and medi-cal twatmer t. This, if it said, was done at the advice of an atte a A.

G. A. Watkins, general agent, Detroit, Mich.:

Dara Sin—! wish to express to you and the officers of the Penn Mutual hite Insurance c in pany my thanks for the very prompt payment of the two policies of $5,000 and $10,000 on the life of my interhusoand, John A. B. Mead. Proofs of loss were made on the 22th ult, and today I received the company's check for $10,579.38.

The accumulations on these two policies during the four years they have been in force have been sufficient to pay off accomodation loans amounting to $000, and also to pay me $573.38 in excess of the face of the policies—($15,000.)

This remarkable showing, the very courtious an I considerate treatment received at the hands of your agents. Mesars. Munsell & Masseck, in making the proofs, and the prompt payment of the chain, commend your company to me in nuch stronger terms than my weak words or 1 express.

Yours sincerely.

Laura B. Mead.

The above letter explains itself.

The policies of the Penn Mutual are absolutely incontestable after two years, by the following clause printed in all its policies: "This contract after two years from its date, will be incontestable except for non-payment of premium as provided herein." Persons buying insurance in this company huy no lawsuits. Its policies are non forfeitable, incontestable, have paid up value. Loan value at 6 per cent interest and extension.

This old quaker company is one of the most solid, safe, carefully managed, con-per cent interest and extension.
